GENERAL GUIDELINES

- It is the responsibility of the employee to check and regularize the OD application before the payroll cutoff date else the same will be considered as Loss of pay. The employee should ensure the regularization before the immediate next payroll to enable the payroll process to reverse the payment.
- The payroll processer will process the salary only as per the attendance records in HRMS. The reversal on updation of HRMS is allowed only in the next payroll process.
- 4 hours working is compulsory for considering ½ day leave this can be clubbed with flexi timing where ever applicable.
- It is the employee's responsibility to take due care and plan their Privilege Leave, so that at any given point of time it doesn't exceed the limit of 90 days and get lapsed.
- Leave balances will be regularly updated on the HRMS based on the leave applications and attendance. It is the employee's responsibility to ensure he/ she keeps a track of his/ her leave status and take appropriate timely action thereof.
- All types of Leave should be compulsorily applied through the HRMS
- Employee should have their leave approved by their reporting managers before proceeding on leave.
- The leave shall be officially sanctioned only if the same is formally approved by the Reporting Manager / HOD through the HRMS Leave and Attendance module. Any employee remaining absent habitually will be treated as misconduct and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken.
- Paid Holidays/ Weekly Offs shall be applicable as per the locations.
- The discretion of sanctioning any leave rests with the Management.
- Employees/ Staff working at the plant shifts should take sufficient care that the continuity of the plant operations should not be adversely impacted in any manner on account of any of their planned or unplanned leave. Therefore a formal prior approval from the reporting managers is mandatory before proceeding on any leave.
- This policy is made flexible to the best interest of our employees. In event of any reported misconduct or abuse of this policy or non-compliance with the provision of this policy, will be subject to disciplinary action.
- Early going will be subject to Half day.
- In event of unauthorized absence for more than 5 working days (without prior official approval, absence without information or beyond the period subsequently sanctioned), the Management shall initiate appropriate disciplinary actions that it deems fit.

Compensatory Off (C-Off):

Compensatory off will be applicable for MMC & JMC Band employees, but this facility will be confined strictly to the shift employees in the plant. This Facility is not applicable to the plant employees coming in the general shift.

Eligibility – The above employees coming to office during weekly offs/holidays will be eligible for Compensatory Off. They should complete minimum 8 hours of duty in order to avail C-Off. If they complete less than 8 hours of duty then he/she will not be eligible for C-Off.

C-Off will be valid for 1 month after the leave is credited. If not availed, it will get lapsed.

Maternity Leave:

This will be applicable for the female employees who are not covered by the ESIC act. Maternity leave will be granted in accordance with the provisions of the Maternity Benefit Act i.e. 26 weeks. The female employee may, ensuring that the total quantum of leave taken remains unchanged, distribute the leave between pre-natal and post-natal periods at her convenience .The leave shall be approved only if it is duly supported by medical certificate.

Leave For Trainees:

Trainee Off-the-Payroll shall be entitled for a lump sum leave of 15 days during the one-year training period. Once the trainees are absorbed in the company pay-roll, the balance leave shall be lapsed and they become eligible to the company's leave policy.

Retainers / Consultants / part-time employees / Off-Payroll staff shall be governed by their contract and other terms of employment.

Exceptions:

Any exceptions to this policy will require the approval of the Managing Directors.

TIME AND ATTENDANCE

Timely and regular attendance is an expectation of performance for all employees. To ensure adequate staffing, positive employee morale, and to meet expected productivity standards throughout the organization, employees will be held accountable for adhering to their workplace schedule.

Time & Attendance:

Office Time and Attendance is recorded through the Bio Metric Machine installed at the entrance of the office / plant premises. All employees are required to strictly adhere to the office timings and attendance policy relevant to their location and the same is governed by the local HR & Admin team.

Flexi timing is subject to general agreement with the respective line manager / HOD, whose responsibility is to see that their individual department is adequately staffed during normal working hours. It is the responsibility of the HOD to ensure that the working of their department, general time discipline and team work is not adversely affected on account of the Flexi policy where ever applicable.
